Child Safety Background Investigation Policy for Youth Program Participants

The Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department recognizes the value and importance of adult participants, regardless of age, in youth programs. We also recognize the importance of providing a safe, secure and positive environment for each youth participant.

Public Safety Concern: The Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department will conduct mandatory criminal background checks on those citizens wishing to participate in youth programs. Criminal background checks are required for those adult participants for the following reasons:

1. To keep the safety of the children the top priority.
2. To make an unwelcome environment for anyone who does not put the needs of the children first.
3. To keep adults from participating in youth programs who have a history of inappropriate behavior or who are unfit to work with children.
4. To select the “best” adult participants to coach and serve in other capacities in youth programs.

Background checks will be used to determine if any youth program adult participant has a criminal history that would jeopardize the safety and welfare of any child participating in any league or team sponsored by the Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department. Background checks will help to improve the quality of adult participants that serve the youth programs in the City.

Description: Background checks will be conducted on all adult participants who have direct contact with youth participants that register in any of Boulder City Youth Programs (as defined by the Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department).

Criteria: For the purposes of the policy, an “adult participant” shall be defined as any individual, regardless of age, who acts in any supervisory capacity with any youth participant. Background checks, done by the Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department, will be conducted not more than every three (3) years, or more often as determined by the Director of Parks and Recreation. Managers, coaches, assistant coaches, volunteer umpires and other adult participants who have direct contact with children will have their background checked. The prospective adult participant will be asked to complete the Background Investigation form; it will be turned into the Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department and a background check will be completed by the Boulder City Police Department. As per the results of the background check, appropriate action will be taken by the Boulder City Parks and Recreation Department. A prospective adult participant who has been penalized for a criminal offense provided herein shall be disqualified from participating in any Boulder City Youth Programs, notwithstanding:

1. The criminal charges resulted in a non-conviction, such as probation, deferred adjudication, or deferred disposition; or
2. The criminal conviction was subsequently expunged from the applicant’s record as a result of appropriate legal proceedings.

Furthermore, criminal charges which were subsequently dropped and the applicant never prosecuted for the crime may be the basis for ineligibility.

The following is a list of offenses that would be grounds to disqualify a prospective individual from being affiliated with any youth activity which operates in the City of Boulder City: (for offenses marked with an “ * “, eligibility shall be reasonably determined upon severity and length of time passes since the offense occurred):

1. Arson
2. Aggravated kidnapping
3. Aggravated robbery
4. Aggravated sexual assault
5. Assault

15. Injury to elderly or disabled

20. Murder
21. Obscenity
22. Prohibited sexual conduct
23. Public lewdness
24. Prostitution
25. Sexual abuse
26. Theft*

This list of offenses is not intended to be all-inclusive of disqualifiers and does not set limits on the offenses that could disqualify any prospective adult participant from affiliation with any youth program with the City of Boulder City.

Any adult participant determined eligible for participating and is later arrested/convicted of any of the above crimes is required to immediately notify his/her organization. The adult participant will be immediately removed from his/her position until the case is adjudicated. Failure on the part of the adult participant to notify Boulder City Parks and Recreation within one business day of an arrest for any offense listed above will result in his/her being removed and declared permanently ineligible to participate with any youth activity with the City of Boulder City beginning on the date the failure to notify was discovered.
