

What's Happening around the City of Boulder City

Need Help? Check our Kepro Employee Assistance Program

The holidays can be stressful for some. Headlines like the pandemic or the deadly storms across the South and Midwest last weekend can fuel anxiety and depression. Help is available, and it is free. The Kepro Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is available online if you need help. Available anytime, any day, the EAP is a confidential program that can help you balance your work, family and personal life. Find fact sheets, online seminars, mental health care providers, information on child care providers, financial calculators, and even get discounts on everyday goods. Go to www.EAPHelpLink.com and enter code POOLPACTEAP or call toll free 833-430-6028.

TEDder Talks and Santa's Electric Night Parade Videos

The City posted two new videos on YouTube last week:

- TEDder Talks: City Manager Taylour Tedder interviews City Clerk Tami McKay about the work of her department and staff at <https://youtu.be/aj9kvRHUf0s>.
- Santa's Electric Night Parade from December 4, 2021 can be seen at <https://youtu.be/iX8RVsxq5ec>.

We also broadcast both on BCTV (Cox Cable channel 2) through December 31, 2021. Thank you to the Boulder City Chamber of Commerce for organizing the parade, to Boulder City's City Council, Parks and Recreation, Police, Fire and Public Works for assisting with parade logistics, and the City Manager's Office/Communications Division for producing the videos.

Upcoming Meetings

Public attendance is allowed at meetings; CDC-approved face coverings are required. You can email comments in advance or participate during the live stream by calling when prompted. Watch live on BCTV channel 2 or online at www.bcnv.org/streaming.
